BUSINESS TALK

CAREER: "I was born on the 15th of July 1964 in Dusseldorf Germany and raised there until I was 12. Due to my father's business commitments, the family moved to Cairo, initially on a one year trial. The one year became many years until very recently"

"I studied at Richmond University in the UK, having transferred from there from George Washington University where I got my degree in International Business & Finance. My first proper job was at Merrill Lynch in London where I stayed for a year as a financial consultant trainee and then moved on with my boss to the Lehmann Brothers, which unfortunately doesn't exist anymore but at the time belonged to the American Express company. My boss then moved again to Oppenheimer in New York where again I followed him. I did not leave the companies because I was not content or they were not right to work for, I followed my boss in supporting him in the merge, which was called, at the time, 'private banking'."

"I was very adept in opening doors and my approach was not selling as a rookie by trying to be the best stock broker in the world. We decided with my boss at the time that we would sell funds managed by serious people who had been in business for a long time and have a proven track record, so we went out there and accumulated a lot of assets into managed funds."

"In 2002, the market experienced a downturn and a lot of money was lost. I had grown close to all my clients and I had a bit of an issue, on one hand I like selling; I like to be with customers, I like servicing their needs. But when it is personally very difficult when it comes to seeing people suffer by selling intangibles which are full of risks, and because of this, I decided to change my career."

NOW: "In June 2013 I was appointed Chief Executive officer of Art Marine, to reinstate stardom, prestige and credibility to the number one regional leisure yachting dealership and marina management enterprise. Confidence is pervading all strata's of the Middle East market and the yachting lifestyle is now being enjoyed by all nationalities here, with many new buyers entering the market. Dubai's economy is only set to grow from strength to strength post our Expo 2020 win and we look forward to the long and sustainable growth of Art Marine which delivers ultimate customer satisfaction through a comprehensive service, and by building a legacy propelled forward by a dedicated and committed team and partners."

SUCCESS: "Staying married for 20 years. I have two boys."
